

SEEKER'S CAROL

CHRISTMAS 1992

Words & music by Dave Cook

$\text{♩} = 66$

The air was chill'd with a fros - ty bite that wind was strong, like the sole de - sire that join in heart with the kings and shep - herds.

night so long a - go. The sky was fill'd with gui - ded the king - ly band. The road was long and Sing with one ac cord! For Christ - mas starts with mu - sic flood ing val - leys far be low. The pa - tient as it stretch'd a - cross the sand. The Je - sus, our King and on - ly Lord. Be - (far be - low. etc.)

mes sage came. "A Child is born! The Sav - ior_ for us star had shone! It led them on! And now their_ way was
- fore, con - ceal'd, and now re - veal'd; the God of_ all man - all! And you shall find Him fast a sleep in the plain. "Be - neath its light you'll find a_ Child who was kind. And if you seek to know His_ worth you_ hay of a cat - tle stall. In the born o - ver us to reign. Who was too shall_ sure - ly find. You_ hay of a cat - tle_ stall. The born_ o - ver us to_ reign. Now too_ shall_ sure_ ly_ find!